Credit Hours: 1cr, .6 lec/lab

PREREQUISITE: MUS 184 or MUS 186 and instructor permission required.

COURSE DESCRIPTION

These are applied music, an individual half-hour per week lesson designed to develop college-level performing skills on percussion instruments. This course is required of music majors whose major instruments are the drums and other percussion.

1. COURSE GOAL

The aim of individual lessons, providing one-on-one instruction, is to improve a student's musical skills and prepare them for transferring to a four-year program

2. OUTCOMES

Upon satisfactory completion of this course, students will:

- 2.1 demonstrate proper techniques and rudiments (e.g., grip, stroke type) and other essential elements on all concert percussion and mallet/keyboard-type percussion at the level of a college sophomore.
- 2.2 demonstrate proper tuning practices and basic maintenance on timpani and other pitched percussion at the level of a college sophomore.
- 2.3 demonstrate control, refined tone production, and phrasing ability over the complete range of mallet/keyboard-type percussion at the level of a college sophomore.
- 2.4 demonstrate proficiency on ethnic percussion instruments at the level of a college sophomore.
- 2.5 demonstrate sophisticated knowledge of and the ability to perform basic styles like rock, swing, ballad, and Latin on the drum set at the level of a college sophomore.
- 2.6 demonstrate proper techniques with sticks, brushes, and mallets over the entire spectrum of styles and instruments at the level of a college sophomore.
- 2.7 demonstrate basic maintenance, phrasing, and sight reading skills and the drum set at the level of a college sophomore.
- 2.8 describe knowledge of and about the entire percussion family at the level of a college sophomore.

3. METHODS OF INSTRUCTION

The course is a one-on-one private lesson.

4. LEARNING ACTIVITIES

- 4.1 An individual lesson will be provided each week of the semester.
- 4.2 Scales, etudes, solos, and method books will be used for instruction.
- 4.3 Sight-reading exercises and duets will augment other study materials.

5. EVALUATION

- 5.1 Grades will be earned by an assortment of learning activities, exams, assignments, and participation.
- 5.2 Please see the instructor's class schedule and assignment sheet for more information.

6. STUDENT RESPONSIBILITIES

- 6.1 Under AWC Policy, students are expected to attend every session of class in which they are enrolled.
- 6.2 If a student is unable to attend the course or must drop the course for any reason, it will be the responsibility of the student to withdraw from the course. Students who are not attending as of the 45th day of the course will be withdrawn by the instructor. If the student does not withdraw from the course and fails to complete the requirements of the course, the student will receive a failing grade.

6.3 Americans with Disabilities Act Accommodations: Arizona Western College provides academic accommodations to students with disabilities through AccessABILITY Resource Services (ARS). ARS provides reasonable and appropriate accommodations to students who have documented disabilities. It is the responsibility of the student to make the ARS Coordinator aware of the need for accommodations in the classroom prior to the beginning of the semester. Students should follow up with their instructors once the semester begins. To make an appointment call the ARS front desk at (928) 344-7674 or ARS Coordinator at (928) 344-7629, in the College Community Center (3C) building, next to Advising.

6.4 Academic Integrity: any student participating in acts of academic dishonesty including, but not limited to, copying the work of other students, using unauthorized “crib notes”, plagiarism, stealing tests, or forging an instructor’s signature will be subject to the procedures and consequences outlined in AWC’s Student Code of Conduct.

6.5 Texts and Notebooks: students are required to obtain the class materials for the course.

6.6 Arizona Western College students are expected to attend every class session in which they are enrolled. To comply with Federal Financial Aid regulations (34 CFR 668.21), Arizona Western College (AWC) has established an Attendance Verification process for “No Show” reporting during the first 10 days of each semester.

Students who have enrolled but have never attended class may be issued a “No Show” (NS) grade by the professor or instructor and receive a final grade of “NS” on their official academic record. An NS grade may result in a student losing their federal financial aid.

For online classes, student attendance in an online class is defined as the following (FSA Handbook, 2012, 5-90):

- Submitting an academic assignment
- Taking an exam, an interactive tutorial or computer-assisted instruction
- Attending a study group that is assigned by the school
- Participating in an online discussion about academic matters
- Initiating contact with a faculty member to ask a question about the academic subject studied in the course
